

Upgrading and Servicing Guide Information

Your PC may use a screw to secure each add-in card instead of the retaining latch described in the procedures under "Removing or Installing an Add-in Card" in your Upgrading and Servicing Guide.

When you replace or install an add-in card, follow the instructions in the Guide and at step 4 simply remove the screw that secures the card or the card slot cover.

Keep this document with your PC documentation.

Printed in

