

Finding Information

The table below outlines the contents of the documents included with your computer. These documents can also be found at www.hp.com/support.

Finding Information
Guide	Contents
Quick Setup	Provides information needed to connect your computer and peripheral devices.
Getting Started*	Provides information needed to set up factory-provided software. Basic troubleshooting is also provided should you have problems during initial startup.
Hardware Reference Guide*	Provides basic information for upgrading this series of computers.
Computer Setup (F10) Utility Guide*	Provides instructions on how to use Computer Setup. This tool is used to reconfigure and modify computer default settings when new hardware is installed and for maintenance purposes.
Desktop Management Guide*	Provides definitions and instructions for using security and Intelligent Manageability features that are preinstalled on select models.
Network & Internet Communications Guide*	Provides definitions and instructions for using network interface controller (NIC) features that are preinstalled on select desktop models.
Troubleshooting Guide*	Provides helpful hints and solutions for troubleshooting this series of computers as well as scenarios for possible hardware and software problems.

Finding Information (Continued)

Guide	Contents
Safety & Regulatory Information*	Provides safety and regulatory information that is compliant with U.S., Canadian, and International regulations.
Warranty	Provides the warranty terms and conditions, warranty period, and types of warranty service available for the product.

*Available on the Documentation Library CD and on the Web at www.hp.com/support.
